THE SUREST ROAD TO WEALTH IS THROUGH LIBERAL ADVERTISING!

GOVERNOR PATTERSON has signed the new ballot law and constitutional convention bill.

In his address on Decoration Day Major McKimley said: "The only debt this government can never pay is the debt it owes the brave men who saved the Nation. The soldiers waited, for their pensions, patiently waited patriotically waited, while the government was struggling under the mighty burden of money debt incurred by war. They stood firmly for the payment of that debt, they resisted every form of repudiation, under any guise. They have saved the country in war, they helped to keep its financial honor free from stain in peace. The great war debt is almost paid. Who shall say that the government obligation shall not be as sacredly kept?" The American people will continue to stand squarely behind such sentiment.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning? The great danger of the sure approach of that terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourself, if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it, or if you know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough, it never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers do not be without it. For James Buck, Group and Chest, see Shiloh's Purest Plaster, Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.

FINANCIAL SCARE

LAST TREASURY STATEMENT SHOWS A DEFICIT.

THE FIRST TIME IN MANY YEARS.

Government Officials not Disturbed by the Situation—Uncle Sam is Able to Pay all His Obligations on Demand.

By National Press Association.

New York, June 20.—Financial circles are agitated over the announcement from Washington that the last Treasury statement shows a deficiency of $787,108. This is the first time in many years that the Treasury has had a deficit.

The Treasury officials are not disturbed by the situation and say that Uncle Sam is amply able to pay all his obligations on demand.

It is pointed out that this does not include $23,627,412 of government funds on deposit with national banks and $20,000,000 of fractional silver. It is estimated that the receipts of the Treasury for the balance of the month will largely exceed the expenditures, and there will probably be a surplus of $7,000,000 by July 1.

A leading banker in discussing the financial outlook said: "In case an unusual drain has to be made on the Treasury in order to move the crops, the Secretary, if the 4-1-2 bonds are extended, can purchase considerable 4 per cent. bonds. The outlook is therefore rather more favorable than it first appears."

ANGRY AT ENGLAND.

British Columbians Incensed Over the Seal Agreement.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—An Ottawa special says that the agreement arrived at between the British Government and the authorities at Washington, regarding the killing of seals in Behring Sea, has raised a storm of indignation in British Columbia.

Premier Robinson will petition the Governor-General to protest on behalf of the Pacific Province to the imperial authorities against the agreement.

Over twenty Canadian sealers have been fitted up at a cost of over half a million dollars, and have sailed north from Victoria to engage in fishing for seals during the coming season.

The British Columbians are greatly incensed at the unexpected manner in which the British Government has acted in the matter without considering Canadian interests. The Government at Ottawa is also coming in for a share of abuse from them. They claim that the Minister of Marine deceived them by stating in Parliament that the Imperial Government had been notified of the Canadian interests involved and that no agreement would be sanctioned that was prejudicial to Canadian interests.

Suffering from a Peculiar Disease.

SCOTTSVILLE, Pa., June 20.—The Hungarians in the coke region are suffering from a peculiar disease, greatly resembling the terrible black leg malady, which some years ago infested Europe. There are twenty patients now in the Westmoreland Home, and 200 cases in the region. Their limbs present a loathsome appearance, and the disease is raging.

THE BIG FLOOD RECALLED.

Johnstown Sufferers Commence Proceedings Against the Fishing Club.

PITTSBURGH, June 20.—Two weeks after the celebration of the second anniversary of the Johnstown deluge, in which over 2,000 lives were lost, comes the announcement that damage suits are at last to be entered against the South Fork Fishing and Hunting Club, which owned the artificial lake whose waters caused the great destruction of life and property. The club was principally composed of millionaire iron and steel manufacturers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City.

W. D. Moore, the celebrated criminal lawyer of Pittsburgh, has been retained by the Johnstown plaintiffs. Litigation has all along been anticipated by the Pittsburgh people. An attempt to indict them for criminal negligence was killed in the grand jury room of Cambria County.

THE GOVERNMENT LOST.

A Verdict for the Plaintiffs in the Hat Trimming Case.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—Importers are elated over the result of the Meyer & Dickinson test suit against the Government to recover alleged excessive duties paid on importations of hat trimmings. The jury returned a verdict in the United States Circuit Court in favor of the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs claimed that the goods were liable to only twenty per cent. duty while the custom house officials held that they were dutiable at fifty per cent.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Acting Secretary Spaulding says that the government will probably appeal the hat trimming case. The amount involved is from $18,000,000 to $20,000,000.

RIOT AND STRIKE.

White Miners Object to Colored Men Being Employed.

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 20.—A riot and strike is in progress among the miners at Pineyville. So far no serious outbreak has occurred, but is expected every moment.

The cause of the outbreak is that colored men were employed in opening a new mine. The white miners objected and a general fight occurred. Sheriff Lockhart with several deputies have gone to the scene.

Despondency Drove Him to Suicide.

ELIZABETH, Pa., June 20.—George Hamilton, a young man who lived in Edinboro, this committed suicide at Conneaut last evening. He lost his wife a few years ago, afterwards failed in business and since then had been despondent. He was found sitting on the doorstep of an Erie friend yesterday morning, was put into bed, but clandestinely left the house and was not heard of until he was found in Conneaut dying from the effects of morphine.

The Children Want $100,000 Damages.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 20.—The guardian of the five minor children of the late Charles Achenbach has entered suit in their behalf against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for $100,000 damages for the death of their father. Achenbach was killed in a wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on June 20, 1890, while on his way from Baltimore to Pittsburgh.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

All Roads Lead to Rome—Only One Royal Road to the Sea.

Coaches and parlor cars of regal sumptuousness, whirled seaward by fleet and smokeless hard coal locomotives, carrying passengers safely and comfortably, in 80 minutes or less, from Delaware avenue in Philadelphia to Atlantic avenue in Atlantic City—this is why it is called the "Royal Road." Fast, frequent and convenient arranged trains start from Chestnut street and South street ferries. And it is the only double track line to the sea.

That portion of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Trenton cut-off extending from Morrisville, New Jersey, to a point of connection with the Schuylkill Valley branch at Ernest, near Norristown, will be thrown open for regular travel next Monday. The completed portion is thirty-one and four-tenths miles in length, leaving fourteen and seven-tenths miles to Glen Loch, this side of Cowntown, on the main line, yet to be finished. When the entire "cut-off" is completed, it will effect a saving of fifteen miles between New York and Downtown. The new line, excepting of course the local passenger travel, will be used exclusively for freight traffic and is intended to remove the necessity of bringing through freight to and from New York and the West Philadelphia. On the portion to be opened on Monday next there will be stations at Danian, Attleboro, Bexton, Drecher, St. Thomas, Blue Bell and White Marsh Junction.

There's a balm in Gilead; there's one cool spot in this sweltering land. The salt winds that blow through old Negus's whiskers and sweep across Atlantic City's board walk are what everybody is pining for. It goes without saying that the favorite route to that favorite resort is the Reading Railroad's great and magnificent equipped double-track line. Every minute express trains start at frequent intervals from Chestnut street and South street wharves, Philadelphia. And it's the only double track line to the sea.

Glen Onaka, Glen Summit and Harvey's Lake, on the popular Lehigh Valley Railroad, are just as popular to-day as ever and are being greatly patronized.

BOROUGH BUDGET.

DUSKY DIAMOND DEALERS VISIT TOWN.

THE FEMALE BASE BALL PLAYERS.

One of Them Seriously Injured.

Sun Stroke Causes a Woman's Death—Notes on the Movements of People.

The members of the Coal Exchange of Philadelphia and vicinity arrived in town yesterday afternoon, shortly before two o'clock, by special train, and were received at the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad depot by Division Superintendent John L. Williams, District Superintendent J. J. Bradigan, Mr. John H. Pollard, of Ashland, and Mine Inspector Stein.

They remained here about half an hour, during which time the outside workings of Indian Ridge colliery were visited and about half a dozen descended the shaft, in charge of Inside Foreman Davis and Campbell.

The visitors were under the charge of Mr. Wellington Berollet, of Mahanoy Plains, Mr. Frank Kessler, of Frackville.

Mr. John F. Rau, of Philadelphia, was the spokesman for the party and to a Herald reporter he made an indignant denial of the report published in the state papers yesterday that an accident occurred while on the way to Wilkes-Barre and endangered the lives of the members. Mr. Rau said there was absolutely no foundation for the report.

The visitors left here at 2:22 for Sanbury and Harrisburg.

The party was composed of the following gentlemen and their wives: J. F. Rau, E. S. Bonbright, Samuel Loder, H. W. Johnson, Julius Guffman, J. L. Paxson, E. W. Doron, Elwood Burton, W. F. Lender, J. THE BASE BALL GAME.

Women are Failures on the Diamond.

The "Cincinnati Reds" female base ball club tackled a local organization at the trotting park yesterday afternoon and admirably illustrated how little women know of the tactics connected with the base ball field. Those who have seen a woman throw a stone can form an idea of how the females played ball yesterday.

As a burlesque on the national game it was a grand success.

It was a regular show and the spectators roared with laughter, but the meriment was brought to a sudden termination in the first half of the seventh inning, when one of the female players, whose name on the score card was Carmen, met with a serious accident.

Carmen had hit to second base and ran with excellent speed for first when the young fellow at the latter point unintentionally stepped backward, causing a collision. Carmen was thrown into the air and, turning a half somersault, fell in a heap on the opposite side of the base. As she fell she shrieked and then swooned. Prompt assistance was given the victim and she soon recovered her senses. Mrs. E. E. Bowman, of East Centre street, very kindly took charge of the young woman and had her taken to her residence, where Drs. Callen and Hamilton were summoned. The doctors found that Carmen's right collar-bone had been broken in two places, and they said the breaks were bad ones.

A Herald reporter visited Carmen at Mrs. Bowman's residence last evening.

She was found resting easy on a lounge in the sitting-room. She said: "The doctors say I will be laid up for a month or more, but I hope to get upon the field again before that. I will go to New York city tomorrow morning and will be cared for there by the mother of Mr. J. J. Bradigan, who is the manager of our club. The lady is a particular friend of mine and I have no other friends in this country, as I but recently came from Scotland, where my mother is still living. My ball playing name is Carmen Letenville, My real name is Agnes Haxton. This accident is a great misfortune to me, but as I will be well cared for by Mrs. Johnson and my salary will run during the time I am laid up things will be all right before long."

The young woman left for New York this morning on the 5:47 Lehigh Valley train. The club left for Mahanoy City last night leaving the unfortunate member in Mrs. Bowman's care.

THE GAME.

The batting order of the female players were: Carmen, c.; Frankie, p.; Georgia, 1b.; Grace, 2b.; Lillian, 3b.; Nellie, c.; Angie, c. 4b.; Flora, c. 5b., all very prettily named; while the home team registered themselves as follows: Ansonberger, 1b.; What, 2b.; Mayestchman, 3b.; Toelate, c.; Mafrun, c.; Fissell, 3b.; Wack, c. 4b.; Givestone, 1. 5b.; Grandpall, c. 6b.

The females went to bat first. A score attempted to keep track of the game, but the errors, misjudgments and a number of discouraging side issues piled in so fast that the task was abandoned. Ansonberger disposed himself in a manner that would make his Chicago name wild with envy. The umpire, Griffin, who is manager of the female club, made some very unique decisions. He promptly sent all disputes with the umpire "Don't dispute with the umpire." In the third inning he refused to declare the female side out until 7 of the club were thrown out. One of the home club, in another inning, knocked a hot one to the outfield and the umpire magnanimously gave the pitcher a ball from his pocket so that she could throw the batsman out at first.

It was a game of games, hop-scotch, hide-and-seek, marbles and other childish sports being diligently imitated, with what might be termed as a slight shade of base ball. At the time the accident occurred the score stood 25 to 15 in favor of the females. The home club accomplished its score by walking around the bases.

The Greatest Strike.

Among the great strikes that of Dr. Miles' "Discovering his New Heart Cure" has proven itself to be one of the most important. The demand for it has become astonishing. Already the treatment of heart disease is being revolutionized, and many weak-pulsed cases effected. It soon relieves short breath, fluttering, pains in side, arm, shoulder, weak and hungry spells, oppression, swelling of ankles, bloating and heart dropsy. Dr. Miles' book on Heart and Nervous Diseases free. The unequalled New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by C. H. Hagenbuch, the druggist, also his Remedy for Service for heart, side, arm, shoulder, hot flashes, nervous spells, opium habit, etc.

JOHN WILL FIGHT.

BUT NOT UNTIL HE RETURNS FROM AUSTRALIA.

SLAVIN ANXIOUS FOR A MATCH.

Sullivan's Backers Make Him a Proposition This Morning—A New Orleans Club Offers a $25,000 Purse.

By National Press Association.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Earnest, Sullivan's trainer, is in "Frisco. He said, when seen, that there was nothing in the dispatches regarding Sullivan's alleged challenge to Slavin. Earnest added: "Sullivan always consults me before making a match, and it has always been John's custom to refer all people looking for a match to me."

"When Dougherty and Slavin called upon Sullivan and me in St. Louis Sullivan told Slavin whatever I said he would agree to. I accordingly told Slavin John was under 18 months' contract with me, but at the end of that time if he, Slavin, was still in the ring and an undefeated man, Sullivan would give him a match. Slavin said he was satisfied, and we parted good friends. This is the understanding between Sullivan and Slavin, and all these stories amount to nothing."

"You can, however, say that Sullivan will make a reply to these challenges from the stage at Corbett's benefit next Wednesday night."

The general opinion among sports here is that Sullivan is talking fight with Slavin solely as an advertising dodge to help his Australian tour. Still a majority of sports here would back Sullivan against Slavin at 2 to 1.

What Sullivan Says.

SAN JOSE, June 20.—The only John L. Sullivan was interviewed here regarding the telegram sent to New York. He was asked:

"Did you authorize Wakeley, of New York, to make a match?" asked the reporter.

"No," said Sullivan. "I am in the show business now, but on my return from Australia next September I will show in San Francisco, and then my contract is up. I will have three months to arrange matters and will be prepared to talk or fight anybody."

When asked his opinion about Slavin he said: "I think he is a very good man; his defeat of Kilrain proves it; but you can say for me that if we ever meet in the ring Sullivan thinks he will come out on top."

Slavin's View of the Matter.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Slavin returns to England to-day, and he says arrangements will have to be made quickly, if at all. "Foxy" Moore, of the Slavin party, said that it was his opinion that Sullivan's challenge was a bluff, pure and simple.

Slavin made another statement as follows: "Sullivan wants to meet me when he comes back from Australia. I'll tell you what I think would be the best idea. I think Australia can offer a sum as big as any place in the world. I will postpone my trip to England if a match can be made with Sullivan for $10,000 and the biggest purse they can raise. I will meet him with or without gloves to demonstrate who is champion of the world. Sullivan will be received much better in Australia if he can make a match to fight me there."

A Challenge to Slavin.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Sullivan's backers, Wakeley and Johnson, deposited $1,000 with Arthur Lumley this morning to make a match with Slavin to fight Sullivan for $10,000 a side. Slavin may accept the offer before he sails for England to-day.

$25,000 for Sullivan and Slavin.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—The Olympic Club of this city has telegraphed an offer of a purse of $25,000 for a fight in the Olympic club room between Sullivan and Slavin to take place February 27th.
